School Board Director and Community Leader, Ashley Comans, Announces Her Run for House District 34

Wilkesburg, PA - Ashley invites you to join her and her supporters Saturday, November 18th, at 1pm at Vickie's Soul Grill in the heart of the district as she announces her candidacy to her community

As a working mom, a school board director and longtime community advocate, Ashley Comans has led a life dedicated to service. On Saturday, November 18, Ashley will announce her candidacy for the House of Representatives 34th District (HD-34).

Growing up in Wilkesburg and parts of the Mon Valley, Ashley has lived in the district her whole life, and understands the strengths, unmet potential, and diversity of the district. Ashley understands first hand what it is like to juggle home, work and passion — as many working moms do.

Ashley is running to represent working people — especially working parents — those in need of healthcare justice, economic justice, reproductive justice and care infrastructure for every family — no matter what your family looks like. As a school board director Ashley is passionate about improving public school education for all children in the district and will fight to fairly fund public education across Pennsylvania. She will be a fierce advocate for working families, defend reproductive rights, and work to make healthcare accessible and affordable. Join Ashley in her campaign to be the next State Representative in HD-34, and fight for a brighter tomorrow across all 13 neighborhoods in the district.
